

Join Our Team

The department is always looking for qualified and motivated people. As a state of Montana employer, we provide many incentives and benefits including:

- Health, dental, & life insurance
- Public Employees Retirement System
- 15 days annual vacation leave
- 12 days annual sick leave
- Paid holidays

The Montana Department of Corrections enhances public safety, promotes positive change in offender behavior, reintegrates offenders into the community and supports the victims of crime.

Director Mike Batista

Montana Department of Corrections

We employ individuals in fields including, but not limited to:

- Correctional counseling
- Religious coordinators
- Registered nursing
- Probation & parole
- Psychology
- Licensed addiction counseling
- Teaching
- Correctional administration
- Maintenance
- Food service
- Administrative support

Contact Information

Phone: (406) 444-1541
5 S. Last Chance Gulch
P.O. Box 201301
Helena, MT 59620-1301
Email: hrcen@mt.gov
Website: cor.mt.gov
Vacancies: <http://www.cor.mt.gov/Employment/currentvacancies.mcp>

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

Accepting Personal Responsibility

Our department employees are the key to public safety. They embrace a common purpose and a commitment to the highest professional standards and excellence in public service.

You can make a difference in your life and in your community working with the Department of Corrections. Help us keep Montana communities safe and improve the lives of others.

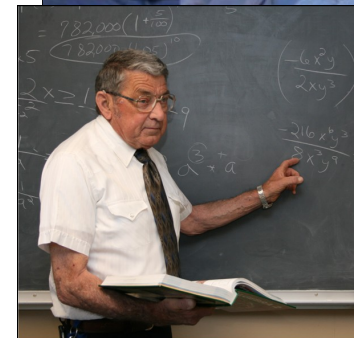

We'll make sure you have the training and skills you need to do your job effectively and professionally!

We offer careers both inside and outside of prisons whether you prefer to work in the city, on the ranch, in the mountains, or in the prairies.

Most of our career opportunities are permanent, full-time positions available in one of our institutions or in communities throughout the state. Correctional officers and probation and parole officers make up the largest portion of our workforce. No matter your aspirations, a career with our department provides for professional and personal growth, advancement opportunities and the ability to serve as part of a team of dedicated corrections professionals.

Family and Community Program Involvement